www.thebighornpoloclub.com.

MONDAY, JULY 8

9:00 am – 6:00 pm Native American Indian Art Show and Sale, at the Sagebrush Community Art Center, 201 E. 5th St. (in the Historic Train Depot). Original interpretations and compositions by Native Americans. Part of the Sheridan WYO Rodeo Week activities. Free and open to the public.

TUESDAY, JULY 9

7:00-8:30 am Sheridan WYO Rodeo Slack, at the Sheridan County Fairgrounds arena. Early elimination rounds for the steer roping event in the main Rodeo evening performances. No admission charge.

9:00 am – 6:00 pm Native American Indian Art Show and Sale, at the Sagebrush Community Art Center, 201 E. 5th St. (in the Historic Train Depot). Original interpretations and compositions by Native Americans. Part of the Sheridan WYO Rodeo Week activities. Free and open to the public.

4:00-7:00 pm Boot Kickoff for Sheridan WYO Rodeo Week, in Kendrick Park. Stick horse races for the kids, introduction of Sheridan WYO Rodeo Royalty, Boot Kickoff competition for all ages, Chamber Ambassador challenge between Sheridan and Buffalo, WY. Food and drink vendors. Free and open to the public. Complimentary trolley shuttle service available from the Sheridan Junior High School parking lot, Whitney Commons (library side), and Sheridan Senior Center.

7:30-9:00 pm “Concert in the Park” at the Kendrick Park band shell. Tonight it’s the country/rock Emmett Bower Band - “rock-a-bility” from Lincoln, Nebraska. From “Alabama” to “Cross Canadian Ragweed” to “Jimmy Buffet,” this multi-talented band is a deep cut above the rest. They’ll be playing all the favorites, plus some truly amazing original songs. www.emmettbowersband.com Bring your lawn chairs or blankets and enjoy a lovely summer evening in the park. Free and open to the public.

8:00-10:00 pm "The Kentucky HeadHunters" in concert, at the WYO Theater, 42 N. Main St. Once upon a time, in a deep and dark forest, in the Bluegrass state of Kentucky, not far from the village of Edmonton, stood a psychedelic shack where the only rock and roll band in Metcalfe County rehearsed - rock & roll that would characterize itself as "guitar-heavy rambunctious music" shredded by the band now known as The Kentucky HeadHunters. Grammy Award winners with the hits "Walk Softly on This Heart of Mine," "Dumas Walker," "O Lonesome Me" and "Rock & Roll Angel," The Kentucky HeadHunters are certainly the most durable Southern Rock outfit on the planet. www.kentuckyheadhunters.net. Tickets are $40 for prime seating, otherwise $32 for adults, $20 students. Get your tickets at the WYO Theater box office, by calling (307) 672-9084, or online at www.wyotheater.com.

6:00-7:30 pm Food for Thought film – “Farmageddon” – part of a series of critically acclaimed films about food and its connection and importance to our communities’ health. Being shown at the DSA Community Room, 121 S. Main St. (corner of Burkitt/Coffeen/Main). Today’s film, “Farmageddon,” tells the story of small, family farmers providing safe, healthy foods to their communities who were forced to stop, often through violent action, by agents of misguided government bureaucracies. The movie poses the question of “why is this happening in 21st century America?” Optimistic, encouraging farmers and consumers alike to take action to preserve individuals’ rights to access food of their choice and farmers’ rights to produce those foods. Free and open to the public.
